MUCH ACTIVITY SEEMS ASSURED IN NEAR FUTURE

While activity in a mining way has been retarded to a certain extent in outside districts during the past three weeks as a result of heavy storms, the outlook for the future is most promising so far as it applies to the whole of southern Nevada. In the Tonopah and Divide districts there has been no cessation of operations, but on the other hand, the scope of development is being gradually augmented. The big mines of Tonopah continue to give a good account of themselves from a production standpoint, and it is evident that the bullion output during the present year will be heavier than at any similar period in the past decade. This is demonstrated from the shipments made this week by the Tonopah Belmont Development company, covering the last half of January, and which amounted in round numbers to $118,000. On last Saturday the West End shipped out $62,000, while on Tuesday of this week the Tonopah Mining made its usual shipment aggregating close to $60,000. Tonopah Extension sent out Tuesday bullion of a value of $62,500, while the McNamara made a shipment estimated to be worth $10,000. This would total $315,000 for the last half of January, or at the rate of $630,000 a month, or $6,420,000 a year. However, it must be taken into consideration that during the summer and fall months the sweeps and tailings plants are kept in operation, which would swell the production in no uncertain way, practically insuring an average output of at least $7,000,000 yearly.

While it is a little premature at this time to make an official announcement, it is known that there are two deals pending at Royston, the new silver camp 28 miles north of Tonopah, which will be closed, in all probability, within a short time. With these transactions consummated new blood will be injected into the district to be followed by well defined campaigns of mine construction. In the meantime the many leasers are busily engaged in carrying forward surface development and highly satisfactory results are forthcoming in a number of instances.

Owners of property in outlying districts, such as Clifford, Arrowhead, Eden Creek, Silver Bow, Bellehelen, Argente, Klondyke and Stone Cabin valley, are awaiting the disappearance of the snow that they may invade these sections with a view to starting prospecting campaigns, as well as campaigns of mine development. Another month should tell a different story, and it is a foregone conclusion that the surrounding hills will be alive with prospectors bent upon uncovering something worth while in a mineral way.

While all the above-mentioned sections are receiving attention, the fact should not be overlooked that Hornsilver, in Esmeralda county, is making a "big noise," and that the reverberation promises to grow louder with the passing days. The many rich discoveries that have been made on the Orion mine, not to mention the promising showings that are taking place on a number of adjoining properties, has caused no little interest among mining men in general, as well as investors throughout many sections of the country.

With the coming of spring there promises to be much activity at Manhattan, the gold camp of Nye county. During the past winter owners of property have prosecuted development diligently, while the leasing system has proved quite profitable to many of the residents. The work now being carried forward by the White Caps company has been quite fruitful of results, and in all probability the big milling plant will be brought into commission during the next two or three months. The mill will be fed upon ore from the various White Caps workings, and in view of the fact that large reserves are showing, it would seem certain that splendid results will follow.
